10. Describe how your virtual or hybrid program/campus aligns with the school system's broader strategic goals or improvement plans.

The proposed Treetops Virtual School aligns directly with our 2026–2028 Strategic Plan and supports our priorities of student growth and achievement strategic partnerships and innovation in learning. Treetops has long provided a rigorous relationship-centered education for grades K–6 but enrollment declines over two decades led to the loss of grades 7–12. The Treetops Virtual School offers a sustainable way to reestablish those grades through a full-time virtual model that preserves our small-school culture and personalized approach while expanding access for families seeking flexibility. Aligned with Strategic Priority 1 this initiative extends our individualized data-driven academic programs to meet diverse student needs and integrates our Treetops House System to sustain belonging mentorship and leadership in a virtual setting. Aligned with Strategic Priority 4 we will leverage partnerships with Texas A&M AgriLife
the BGIN Network
and Texas Children in Nature to create optional on-campus enrichment days where students can explore hands-on nature-based learning experiences. The academic program will remain fully virtual while providing meaningful opportunities for students to connect with their peers and environment. By reimagining grades 7–12 through a mission-driven full-time virtual model Treetops will continue to serve families who believe in our approach while expanding access to students across Texas who need a flexible high-quality public education.

11. Describe what knowledge or experience the school system's leadership team brings to designing and supporting high-quality virtual or hybrid instruction.

The Treetops School International leadership team brings deep experience in instructional innovation technology integration and student-centered program design. Led by Superintendent Dr. James Whitfield a former award-winning principal and nationally recognized education leader the team has successfully guided campus transformations focused on culture personalized learning and academic growth. Dr. Whitfield previously led a school to earn the designation of AVID National Demonstration School a recognition achieved by only a small number of campuses nationwide for their commitment to college and career readiness. Our leadership includes administrators and instructional coordinators who effectively led through the COVID-19 pandemic rapidly implementing high-quality virtual instruction building systems for remote engagement and training staff to maintain strong connections with students and families. The team has continued to refine those practices developing robust digital communication structures and leveraging technology to enhance instructional delivery and monitoring. Treetops has a proven history of maintaining high academic standards while embracing innovation including nature-based learning digital portfolios
and small-group intervention structures. The leadership team's collaborative data-informed approach ensures that virtual instruction will reflect the same rigor creativity and strong relationships that define the Treetops learning experience. Together this team combines strategic vision practical experience and a deep commitment to equity to design a virtual school that is flexible engaging and aligned with state accountability expectations.

12. Describe what research, data, or stakeholder input informed the school system's decision to pursue a virtual or hybrid model.

The decision to pursue a full-time virtual school is grounded in both data and stakeholder input gathered through the 2024 Treetops Strategic Planning process. Over a six-month period a diverse team of 21 stakeholders—including teachers parents students board members and community partners—participated in focus groups surveys and planning sessions that identified a consistent theme: families value the Treetops approach but seek greater flexibility and expanded grade offerings beyond K–6. Enrollment trend data from the past two decades revealed that Treetops’ greatest attrition occurs after grade six largely due to the absence of upper-grade options. Families consistently expressed a desire to remain within the Treetops community through high school but were forced to transition elsewhere once their children completed sixth grade. The virtual model directly addresses this need providing an innovative and sustainable way to reestablish grades 7–12 while reaching students who need adaptable learning pathways. The strategic plan also emphasizes expanding access integrating technology and fostering inclusive learning environments. Through surveys and listening sessions parents and staff identified virtual and hybrid models as essential to meeting the needs of modern learners and working families. Together these findings demonstrate that a full-time virtual program is a responsive mission-aligned solution that honors community input addresses long-standing enrollment gaps and positions Treetops to serve a broader population of Texas students.

13. Which best describes the school system’s key areas of need for the virtual/hybrid program?

Note: Answers provided will not limit the type of support the school system will receive if accepted into the program. Instead, this information will be used to better understand the school system’s key area of need.

- Aligned, effective vision and model that is responsive to family and student needs.
- Family engagement, communication, and/or recruitment plan.
- Staffing and/or teacher/staff recruitment plan.
- Plan for communicating clear administrator, teacher, student, and family roles within a virtual/hybrid model. (and wherever needed, support for shifting mindsets)
- Instructional framework for designing high-quality virtual and hybrid courses aligned to research-based practices.
- Student attendance and engagement plan.
- School Culture and student well-being plan.
- Plan for supporting special populations and at-risk students.
- Student onboarding sessions, including learning strategies and support for cultivating mindsets rooted in the science of learning, self-directed learning skills, how to use digital tools, and help-seeking during asynchronous and/or synchronous instruction.
- Teacher development (PD and ongoing job-embedded coaching) to deliver high-quality instruction and learning experiences in a virtual/hybrid model.
- High-Quality Instructional Materials. (for core curriculum and adjusted for virtual/hybrid learning)
- Data collection and progress monitoring systems.
- Technology Strategy and Data Privacy Framework. (including hardware, connectivity, digital tools, and cybersecurity policies)
- Master schedule that is appropriately set up for virtual or hybrid learning.

14. Describe which additional topics, areas of support, or identified gaps would be most helpful to strengthen the school system's virtual or hybrid model.

To strengthen the design and long-term success of the Treetops Virtual School we are seeking targeted support in three key areas: instructional design for virtual environments technical infrastructure and sustainable staffing models. While our leadership team brings deep experience in culture building instructional leadership and community engagement we recognize that high-quality virtual programs require specialized systems and tools that extend beyond our current capacity. We intend to partner with a trusted third-party organization experienced in supporting public school virtual and hybrid programs. This partnership would provide expertise in course development platform management and virtual instructional coaching to ensure that academic rigor student engagement and accountability remain strong. Additional areas of support that would strengthen our model include guidance on compliance and reporting for virtual campuses under TEC Chapter 30B strategies for equitable technology access for students across geographic areas and best practices for measuring engagement and learning outcomes in virtual settings. Our goal is to build a virtual school that reflects the same excellence creativity and student-centered approach that define Treetops while leveraging expert partners and state technical assistance to ensure a scalable and sustainable model for years to come.

15. Describe which curriculum the school system is currently using, or planning to use for virtual learning for core courses.

Treetops School International does not currently operate a virtual school or utilize a virtual learning curriculum. As part of the exploratory and planning phase of this grant our goal is to research evaluate and select a high-quality curriculum that aligns with Texas Essential Knowledge and Skills (TEKS) and supports our mission of personalized engaging instruction. During the grant period we plan to work closely with technical assistance providers and potential third-party partners to identify virtual learning platforms and instructional materials that reflect our values of rigor flexibility and connection. This process will include stakeholder input pilot testing of selected tools and alignment to our strategic priorities of student growth innovation and equity. The curriculum selected will ensure that Treetops students experience the same level of academic excellence and creativity that define our in-person program while meeting all state requirements for virtual instruction.

16. Which content is the school system considering when adopting new instructional materials or curriculum for virtual learning? (choose all that apply)

Note: Curriculum adoption is not a requirement of the program, but rather an optional support; the response to this question will help us better understand the school system's needs.

School System's Commitments to VHPA

As part of the VHPA, school systems will form a VHPA Team that regularly partners with VHPA technical assistance providers and meets as a central team to develop and improve the virtual/hybrid program using VHPA support.

To the best of your current understanding, provide the contact information of individuals who most likely will be on the school system's VHPA Team.

19. Is the school system partnering with a third-party vendor or partner to run the virtual or hybrid program?

- Yes
- No

20. The school system must have the flexibility to iterate the virtual and hybrid programs even when working with a third party. Describe the limitations, if any, set by the vendor for the school system's virtual or hybrid program.

Treetops School International recognizes the importance of maintaining full flexibility and local control over instructional design curriculum alignment and overall program governance. While we intend to engage a third-party partner to provide expertise in virtual learning infrastructure and support services the relationship will be structured to ensure that Treetops retains decision-making authority over all academic operational and staffing components of the program. Any vendor partnership will operate in a consultative and supportive role rather than a prescriptive one. The partner's responsibilities will be limited to providing platform access technical support and professional learning for teachers while Treetops will maintain full ownership of instructional delivery assessment and compliance with all Texas Education Code and TEA requirements. There will be no contractual limitations that restrict our ability to adjust curriculum instructional strategies or student engagement models based on data feedback or state guidance. This structure ensures that Treetops can continually iterate and improve the virtual program to meet student needs and uphold our standards of excellence creativity and connection.
